

567—134.28(455B) General procedures.

134.28(1) Database. The department will maintain a database including the following information:

- a. Liquid underground storage tank systems registered with the department.
- b. Licensed individuals (installers, liners, testers, inspectors).
- c. Licensed companies (employers of licensed individuals).
- d. Violations (including disposition or status).

134.28(2) Revocation of license. A license may be revoked for 12 months if the licensed company or individual, including installers, testers, liners or inspectors:

- a. Fails to perform duties or the assigned work consistent with industry standards as outlined in Part C of this chapter.
- b. Intentionally falsifies reports to the department.
- c. Intentionally fails to report to the department when a prohibited practice regulated by this chapter is observed or identified at a site at which they are performing work regulated by this chapter.
- d. Fails to report to the department any practice by any party, including the owner/operator, which is prohibited under these rules.
- e. Acts in collusion with any other party.
- f. Fails to report a release from an underground storage tank system to the department that is discovered by the licensed individual at a site at which they are performing work regulated by this chapter, but which has not been reported as required under 567—135.6(455B).
- g. A license will be revoked upon receipt by the department of a certificate of noncompliance from the child support recovery unit.

134.28(3) Appeal. Nothing herein shall eliminate the ability of the license holder to appeal, under Iowa Code chapter 17A procedures, any administrative action allowed by these rules. Notwithstanding Iowa Code section 17A.18, the obligor does not have a right to a hearing before the department to contest the department actions under Iowa Code chapter 252J but may request a court hearing pursuant to Iowa Code section 252J.9 within 30 days of the provision of notice under this section.
